

Attention California Library Public Programmers!

- Are you looking for a challenge?
- Boost your public programming skills?
- Secure "venture capital" for a new project?
- Help immigrants feel welcome in your community?
- Meet like-minded colleagues across the state?

Library Innovation Lab 2018

Exploring New Ways of Engaging Immigrant Communities through Public Humanities Programming

A hands-on professional development experience will enable a cohort of library programming specialists this year to research, plan, implement, and assess a new public humanities program that engages immigrants.

Participants will receive

- Training, advice, and support from peers, library mentors, and experts
- Travel support for cohort convenings
- A grant (up to $5,000) for program development and implementation*

Applications accepted

- March 1 through April 2
- from California public library or library-serving organizations
- An informational webinar was held Friday, March 2, Click HERE to view it.

Please visit our Library Innovation Lab web page for more information

Grant funds must be matched over the life of the project with local cash or in-kind contributions*