

The Boyle Heights Museum is a research, exhibition, and educational project that preserves and celebrates the multi-ethnic history of Los Angeles' Boyle Heights neighborhood.

Nov. 11, 2018 - Feb. 9, 2019 in the Jean Deleage Gallery of CASA 0101 Theater
Hours: Tues to Sat, 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

ROYBAL:

A Multi-Racial Catalyst for Democracy,

a bilingual (Spanish and English) exhibition, considers Edward Ross Roybal's contributions to social justice in Los Angeles, his family's multi-generational political legacy, and the impact of his coalition of progressive, multi-racial grassroots activists.

Opening Event: Sunday, November 11, 2018, 2:00 p.m.

First Panel Discussion on Latino Leadership in Boyle Heights

Facilitator: Dr. George Sanchez

Opening Reception in the theater's lobby at 2:45 p.m.

Performance of Remembering Boyle Heights at 4:45 p.m.

Doors will open at 1:00 p.m. for viewing the exhibit.

Panel Discussion Series:

Panel Discussions will be scheduled after Sunday Matinee performances of Remembering Boyle Heights at CASA 0101 Theater during the run of the show. They will include the Boyle Heights Historical Society, the Jewish Historical Society, the Japanese American Museum, Food & Fashion in Boyle Heights, and more. Please visit the websites, casa0101.org and boyleheightsmuseum.org for updates on scheduling.

ROYBAL:

A Multi-Racial Catalyst for Democracy

