

CALIFORNIA DOCUMENTARY PROJECT
Self-Evaluation Questions
(Production and R&D Grants)

Please use this section to tell us about your project goals, objectives, and outcomes. Your responses are for internal institutional learning only, so please be as candid as possible. Enter your responses below each question and add space as needed. Save this file as a Word document or PDF and upload with your online final report form on the grantee portal: <https://ch-grants.smapply.io>.

1. List each of the goals and objectives you described in your original proposal, and explain your progress towards achieving them.
2. Please tell us why (or why not) you feel your project enhances our understanding of California and its cultures, peoples, and histories?
3. If you established partnerships/collaborations with other organizations as a result of this project, please name the organizations, provide brief descriptions of each and explain the nature of the partnerships/collaborations.
4. Who were your humanities advisors for this project (name, title, email address), what were their roles, and how would you assess their contributions to the project?
5. Did this California Humanities' grant help you attract additional funding or support for this project?

6. Did your documentary garner any awards or recognition? If yes, please list each award separately and include the award name, name of organization that gave the award, location and any other significant details about the award.
7. What are the next steps, if any, you will take with this project?
8. In conducting your project, what worked particularly well? What would you do differently?
9. What do you think California Humanities could do differently to improve the program?
