

Resources for Further Engagement

There's always more to learn more about California's electoral DNA! The below reading, viewing, and listening materials will help you delve deeper into the topics covered in this season of California on the Ballot:

- After the Vote: Recall Elections in California
  - David Siders and Carla Marinucci (panelist), "How Gavin Newsom survived the recall." Politico, September 15, 2021.†
  - Seema Mehta (panelist), Melanie Mason, and Melissa Gomez, "San Francisco is usually seen as a lefty outlier. The school board recalls may make it a bellwether." LA Times, February 17, 2022.†
- Equity at the Polls: Voter Access in California
  - Alisa Belinkoff Katz (panelist), Izul de la Vega, Saman Haddad, Jeanne Ramin and Zev Yaroslavsky, Reckoning with Our Rights: The Evolution of Voter Access in California. UCLA Luskin Center for History and Policy, September 2020.*†
  - Eric McGhee, Jennifer Paluch, and Mindy Romero, "Equity in Voter Turnout after Pandemic Election Policy Changes." The Public Policy Institute of California, March 2022.*
  - Mindy Romero, Anna Meier, Barbara Chami, and Emily Pava, "California's Changing Electorate: A 2020 Post Election Analysis of Voting Behavior." The Center for Inclusive Democracy, August 2021.*
- Voters on the Move
  - California Citizens Redistricting Commission (of which panelist Dr. Sara Sadhwani is a member), "We Draw The Lines CA" website: <https://www.wedrawthelinesca.org>*†
    - Click on "Past Meetings" tab to access Commission meeting recordings that Dr. Sadhwani mentioned during panel
  - Harvard Joint Center for Housing Studies website (featuring research by panelist Dr. Carlos Martín): <https://www.jchs.harvard.edu/research>*†
  - Turner Center for Housing Innovation website: <https://turnercenter.berkeley.edu>*
- Civic Participation and California Immigrants:
  - Sonja Diaz et al, "Shaping a 21st Century Latino Agenda." UCLA Latino Politics and Policy Institute, July 2020.†
  - Hiroshi Motomura, Immigration Outside the Law (Oxford University Press, 2014). Abstract here.†

- Cecilia Menjívar, “State Categories, Displacements, and Possibilities from the Margins.” American Sociological Association 2022 annual meeting presidential address, August 7, 2022. (Speech begins at 1:09:20).*
- Voting Rights for Indigenous Populations
  - Cooperative Election Study. Harvard University, 2005-2020.*
  - Chrissie Castro, Anatea Chino, and Laura Harris. “Addressing the Strengths, Structural Barriers and Opportunities to Getting Native Americans into Elected Leadership.” Advance Native Political Leadership (of which panelist Jordan James Harvill is National Program Director), October 2016.
- Voting Rights for Incarcerated Californians
  - Dr. Andrew Dilts, Punishment and Inclusion: Race, Membership, and the Limits of American Liberalism (Fordham University Press, 2014).*†
  - “Humanities Beyond Bars: Reimagining Public Safety.”  Kegley Institute of Ethics panel (featuring panelists Romarilyn Ralston and Dr. Brady Heiner). California State University, Bakersfield, November 2020.†

* resource mentioned during the event

† resource authored by or featuring an event panelist

Chelsea Davis is a writer and radio producer based in San Francisco. Her essays and poetry have appeared in the Los Angeles Review of Books, Literary Hub, Electric Literature, and the Public Domain Review, among other publications. <https://chelseamdavis.net>